Chapter 1 by Feyre Archeron

I'm an all-time football player. I go to Chisholm middle school, and I'm a female. Yes I know that being a football player you get judged different and you aren't treated the same. Before I Became a "Jock?" I was a "nobody." I had no friends, nobody paid attention to me, I was bullied.

Now, when you think of " FOOTBALL PLAYER" you say " Oh My Gosh, stay away from her, she's popular, she's nothing but rude, and AWSOME, and dumb." When I think about how to live the life of the popular kids, I just close my eyes and say, " Just be yourself, the real you will get all the attention, not the person you pretend to be."
